Grievance Redressal Cell

The Redressal Cell serves as a statutory unit established as per the UGC guidelines to address and resolve complaints from both students and staff concerning a range of institutional matters. Its main objective is to foster a supportive and responsive framework that guarantees the safety, dignity, and welfare of all individuals within the institution.

The Redressal Cell promotes a positive environment by ensuring that all complaints, whether related to academic, administrative, or personal issues, are resolved with integrity and in accordance with institutional policies.
