NOTICE

A CELEBRATION OF HUMANITY AND COMPASSION

(DIWALI HOLIDAY ASSIGNMENT)

This Diwali, let us go beyond the traditional celebration of lights, sweets and gifts and spread happiness among those who need our love, care, affection and support.

As part of their Diwali holiday assignment, students are encouraged to visit the following places along with their family members and friends:

1. Orphanages and children's homes.

2. Old-age homes.

3. Schools and hostels for blind children and visually impaired students.

4. Drought-affected villages to meet farmers struggling with water scarcity and agricultural difficulties.

5. Social welfare institutions and organisations working for the upliftment of underprivileged communities.

6. Gaushalas (cow shelters).

7. NGOs and other organisations engaged in social service and humanitarian activities.

Students are encouraged to celebrate Diwali with these communities by sharing happiness, spending quality time with them, understanding their challenges and extending whatever possible support they can through love, kindness, generosity and compassion.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING AND SUBMISSION

After the vacation, students are required to write a brief report describing their visits, experiences, observations, thoughts and feelings. They should also mention what they learnt from these interactions and how these experiences influenced their understanding of humanity and social responsibility.

The report must be submitted to the respective subject teachers. This activity will be considered as part of the internal assessment of the concerned subject, and marks will be awarded accordingly.

Let this Diwali be more than a festival of lights. Let it become a festival of sharing, caring and serving humanity.

May our students understand that true happiness lies not merely in receiving gifts but also in bringing smiles to the faces of others.

Let us collectively nurture the values of empathy, gratitude, generosity, innovation, scientific temperament, social responsibility and compassion among our students.

We wish all our students and their family members a VERY HAPPY, SAFE AND PROSPEROUS DIWALI!

May this festival of lights bring happiness, good health, peace, prosperity and divine blessings into everyone's lives.
